To the Blessed Trinity

Almighty God in Trinity
From all my heart be thanks to Thee
For Thy good deed, that Thou me wrought,
And with Thy Precious Blood me bought,
And for all good Thou lends to me,
O Lord God, blessed may Thou be!
All honor, joy and all loving
Be to Thy name without ending. Amen.

-A Book of the Love of Jesus

A Morning Offering for the Month of June

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, burning with love for me and anxious for my love, I wish to spend this entire day in a spirit of love and reparation. I wish my every thought and action to be in praise of Thy love, shown for me in the Blessed Sacrament. Whatever work I do, whatever I may have to suffer, I wish to offer it to Thee through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, that through her I may become more pleasing to Thee. I will try by every means at my disposal to bring others to the knowledge of Thy love. Amen.

A Father's Prayer to God the Father

O God, our Father in Heaven, I marvel to think that You have called me to be a father, too.

For in Your presence I am but a child. You are strong, I am weak, You are holy, I am a sinner, You are perfect in wisdom and love, I am often blind and prone to selfishness.

In spite of all this, You have called me to be a father here on earth. I ask from You the grace to lead my family along Your paths, by my words, but especially by my example and my prayer. Help me to put my wife and children ahead of my own ambitions and recreations, to be attentive to their needs, just as You show Your provident care to all of us.

And when firmness or discipline are required, help me to be motivated not by frustration or impatience, but – like You – by a heart of love. Amen.

A Prayer to God the Father

Eternal Father, Creator of all things and Lord of life, look into my heart, and behold there Jesus, Thy Divine Son, who was made man for my salvation and who now has given Himself to me to be the food of my soul. With what endless love doest Thou look upon this adorable Guest of my heart! Be moved, most generous and loving God, by the sight of Thy Jesus dwelling within me, to open the floodgates of Thy mercy, and to shower down upon me every grace and blessing.

Make me more and more like Jesus with every breath I draw, every act I perform, every thought I conceive, every word I utter. May the sight of this heavenly Guest, dwelling in my heart, move Thee, most mighty Father, to grant all my petitions, to bless all those for whom I wish to pray, my family, my friends, my enemies, all who have injured me or whom I have injured. Bless our holy Mother Church. Make prosperous all Catholic works and societies.

I pray that Thou wouldst help all sinners, strengthen and increase the work of Catholic missions, and bring the whole world to love and adore Jesus, whom I now cherish in my heart. Never can I thank Thee sufficiently, kind and merciful Father, for this celestial Gift, but the Heart of Jesus is within me, He is all mine. I offer Him, therefore, to Thee as the most effective thanksgiving, the most perfect adoration, the most moving supplication. May He, whom I now cherish in my heart, be unto me salvation and life, that I may enjoy in heaven His blessed company, where with Thee, His Father, and the Holy Ghost, He lives and reigns, one God, world without end. Amen.

Feast of the Holy Trinity

This festival is celebrated on the Sunday after Pentecost, because as soon as the apostles were instructed and consoled by the Holy Ghost, they began to preach openly that which Christ had taught them.

Why do we celebrate this festival?

That we may openly profess our faith in the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, which is the first of Christian truths, the foundation of the Christian religion, and the most sublime of all mysteries; and that we may render thanks to the Father for having created us, to the Son for having redeemed us, and to the Holy Ghost for having sanctified us.

In praise and honor of the most Holy Trinity, the Church sings at the Introit of this day's Mass: Blessed be the holy Trinity and undivided Unity: we will give glory to him, because he hath shown his mercy to us. (Tob. xii.) O Lord, our Lord, how wonderful is thy name in all the earth! (Ps. viii. I.) Glory be to the Father, etc.

Instruction on the Renewal of Baptismal Vows

All the graces and dignities which we receive in baptism, God secures to us for the future, only on condition that we keep our baptismal vows. Every Christian in baptism makes a bond with God through the mediation of Christ who has sealed it with His blood. This bond consists, on man's part, in the promise to renounce forever the devil, all his works and all his pomps, that is, constantly to suppress the threefold lust of the eyes, the flesh and the pride of life, by which the devil leads us to sin, and to believe all that God has revealed, and all that His holy Church proposes to our belief, and diligently and properly to make use of all the means of salvation. On the part of God this bond consists in cleansing us from all sin, in bestowing the gifts of the Holy Ghost, in adopting us as His children, and in the assurance to the inheritance of heaven. This bond will never be broken by God who is infinitely true and faithful, but it is often violated by weak and fickle man. In compliance with the desire of the Church we should often reflect upon it, and from time to time renew it in the sight of God. This should be done particularly before receiving the holy Sacrament of Confirmation, before first Communion, on the vigils of Easter and Pentecost, at the blessing of baptismal water, on the anniversaries of our baptism and confirmation, before making any solemn vow, before entering into matrimony and when in danger of death. This renewal of baptismal vows can be made in the following manner: Placing ourselves in the presence of God, we kneel down, fold our hands, and say with fervent devotion:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was born and suffered for us.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

I renounce the devil, all his works, and all his pomps.

Christ Jesus! With Thee I am united, to Thee alone I cling, Thee only will I follow, for Thee I desire to live and die. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

By St. Alphonsus de Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that thou art in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love thee above all things, and in my soul I desire thee. Since I cannot receive thee now sacramentally, come at least spiritually to my heart. I embrace thee as already there and unite myself wholly to thee; do not permit that I may ever be separated from thee. Jesus, all my good and all my love, wound, inflame this heart of mine, that it may all and always burn for thee.

Indulgence of 60 days, once a day

Note from Father

Dear Faithful,

When I arrived in Milwaukee Friday evening for Mass some of you expressed surprise, thinking that Fr. McKenna would still be here. He had some plans with Bp. Dolan to take care of back in Cincinnati. So, here I am.

The trip here was pleasant at parts and amusing at parts. I sat next to a lady on the airplane who was saying her Rosary. We got to talking later on in the flight about making sure to be faithful to saying the Rosary. I was thinking – that one Rosary might make all the difference in her coming to the true Faith and of one day having a priest at her sick bed. I have no doubt but that Our Lady has some sort of plan for that woman's soul! Upon arrival at O'Hare airport, who was there to greet me but our very own Fr. McKenna who was flying out! We chatted for a few minutes and then I went to baggage to meet Mr. Poggel, who was in an entirely different terminal. Well, we finally caught up with each other and made it home safely. Poor Bob looked like he needed half of a Heineken when the trip was done!

Fr. McKenna tells me that Paul Olszewski is now at Ruth Hospice House in West Allis. The feeding tube has been removed and Paul is now able to communicate a little bit, but is still pretty beat up from his fall. I thank you for your continued prayers. There are no missions to take care of tomorrow, but I am off to Chicago and then on to Elgin, Illinois to visit a couple of our distant faithful. I will be back later in the evening and will offer Mass here at St. Hugh's on Monday morning. Try to make it to Mass if you can as a preparation for the coming feast of Corpus Christi.

I hear that there were few people at the Rosary Procession on Thursday. Perhaps because of all of the schedule changes and mix-up. I hope, though, that the future processions will be well attended. Our country and our Church so badly need the help of Our Lady. Look around and see how both Church and country are so attacked on all sides by our enemies, especially our spiritual enemies. History has given us enough proof that Rosary Processions call down heaven's blessings in the most desperate times. It is all recorded in the annals of our Catholic history! Think of the great good we can do here at 12th and Hayes!

Next week is the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, First Communions, and Scapular Enrollment! A big day for our first communicants. Say a prayer or two for them this week so that they give Jesus a great welcome as He comes into their heart for the first time!
