I sat with Sorrow

I sat with sorrow 'neath a blowing tree,
And watched a fountain endless
sprays unfurl,
Full jeweled streamers twined
with braids of pearl,
That danced a wink upon a silver sea
And blew in rainbow mists on him and me.

The leaves above turned greener with each spray,
And I perceived a Truth but could not say
A word—then sorrow spoke the simile:

“O Cross, thou art the fountain
never dry,

Thy sweet, sweet wood an altar,
for 'twas laved

With Blood of Him who deigned on thee to die;

'Til to this day from that last dying sigh

God's faithful by thy cooling stream are saved
From thirsting Hell to Heaven's Feast on high.”

St. Anne, Mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Let us honor this great Saint, who has given life to Mary, a mother to Christ, a queen to the angels, a protectress to the just, a refuge to sinners, a comforter to the afflicted, and to all mankind, a mother full of mercy. She causes repentance to be granted to sinners, perseverance to the just, health to the infirm, liberty to prisoners, and to all, the grace and mercy of God. Let us then have recourse with confidence to her intercession and be assured that by so doing, we make ourselves most agreeable to Jesus and Mary.

Let us beg of this great Saint to obtain for us the grace we stand in need of, to enable us to live holily in our state, and faithfully to fulfill all our duties.

Parents should beg the grace to bring up their children well and to give them a pious and Christian education; and especially, to excite them to virtue, and instruct them in the practice of it by their good example, and by the regularity of their conduct.

Novena prayer to St. Anne to Obtain a Special Favor

Glorious St. Anne, filled with compassion for those who invoke thee, and with love for those who suffer, heavily laden with the weight of many troubles, I cast myself at thy feet and humbly beg of thee to take the present affair which I recommend to thee, under thy special protection.

Vouchsafe to recommend it to thy Daughter, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and lay it before the throne of Jesus, so that He may bring it to a happy issue. Cease not to intercede for me until my request is granted. Above all, obtain for me the grace of one day beholding my God face to face, and with thee and Mary and all the Saints, praising and blessing Him for all eternity. Amen.

Good St. Anne, mother of Her who is our Life, our Sweetness and our Hope, pray to Her for us, and obtain our request. (3 times)

O Precious Blood, be my strength amid the trials and struggles of exile. Grant that at the hour of my death I may be able to bless Thee for having been the comfort and the sanctification of my soul, before becoming, in heaven, the everlasting object of my love and praise. Amen.

Heavenly Wine, giver of purity and strength, pour down upon my soul. Make of my heart a living chalice from which grace shall constantly flow on those that love Thee, and especially on poor sinners that offend Thee. Teach me to honor Thee and to make Thee honored by others. Give me power to draw to Thee cold and hardened hearts, that they may feel how infinitely Thy consolations surpass those of the world. Amen.

Note from Father

Dear Faithful,

The weather is warm here in Ohio and the sky repeatedly threatens to open up on us, though I think we have largely missed any thunderstorms thus far. I am sure it is just a matter of time, however. Such is often the way of summers in the Ohio River Valley. It is hot and humid and then a huge thunderstorm comes and provides a visual spectacle...and if we are lucky, the arrival of a cold front.

The Fathers Thomas have been sent out for the weekend to do a little mission work. Fr. Thomas Okerulu is here in Milwaukee for the first time. He is the last of the four newly ordained priests to make his way to our northern chapel and will offer his first priestly blessing after both of the Sunday Masses. Fr. Thomas Simpson pops down for a quick Saturday/Sunday set of Masses in our Dallas mission. He has visited that mission before, but he had the opportunity this time to perform his first Extreme Unction while he was down there.

Both of them return home Sunday evening in order to be on hand to help out with next week's annual boys' camp. This is always a great deal of fun for all the boys and dads who attend. With the new priests, the plan was that they would start to handle more of the camp duties. However, they might find themselves being in charge of the camp more than they had anticipated this year, as I have contracted some sort of bug which has been going around as of late. Hopefully I will bounce back enough to join the fun, but if not, I have no doubt that between the three new priest...they can figure out how to play dodgeball with the kids, haha!!

Bp. McGuire has largely bounced back from his own cold from last week. You don't usually expect to get a round of colds during the summertime, but here we are.

I hope that you are all healthy and well. These dog days of summer can be long ones.

In Christ,

Fr. McKenna
