Easter Sunday

✦ Announcements ✦

Blessed Easter to you all! Thank you to all who helped make this week's ceremonies go so smoothly!

The Blessing of Easter Baskets takes place at the communion rail after both masses today.

Next Sunday, the Blessing of Religious articles will take place after the masses.

This Friday is the First Friday of April. Due to the fact that we just had all night adoration on Holy Thursday, we will simply have Benediction at the end of Friday's Mass.

Speaking of Holy Thursday, I just read that if you came to make a Holy Hour that night and received Holy Communion either Thursday day Evening or Easter Sunday, you can gain a plenary indulgence! Be sure to offer a Pater, Ave, and Gloria to gain the indulgence today!

Lastly, the last several times I have come here, there has been at least one phone call during the Masses. Please remember to put your phone on silence, or better yet, turn them off completely.

Regina Caeli

(Replaces the Angelus during Eastertide)

Queen of heaven, rejoice, Alleluia.

For He Whom thou didst merit to bear, Alleluia.

Hath risen as He said, Alleluia.

Pray for us to God, Alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary! Alleluia.

R. Because the Lord is truly risen, Alleluia.

Let us pray

O God, Who by the resurrection of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, hast vouchsafed to make glad the whole world, grant, we beseech Thee, that, through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His mother, we may lay hold of the joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen

With Jesus

Blessed be the dawn, O Jesus, of that most happy day on which, Thou didst rise victorious over death never again to die. Ah! by the joy which filled the heart of Thy most tender Mother and Thy beloved Disciples at beholding Thee glorious and immortal, grant that by frequently receiving into our souls Thy most Sacred Body and Blood, the true Bread of life, we too may now rise from the cold grave of our lukewarmness and infidelities, so as to be worthy to live with Thee both in this life and in the next.

Joys of Easter Confession

Man confesses and is pardoned. He breathes a sigh of relief. He may be an old, inveterate sinner but when he steps outside the confessional he has thrown off the years, he has become a child; he is gay once more, happy and cheered. He has gone to the God of forgiveness and his strength is renewed like the eagle. Now, having squared his accounts with his God, having put his house in order, he feels, and rightly so, that “happy days are here again.”

This happiness is his through the love of the Sacred Heart, through the power Christ gave His priests to forgive sins when He said, “Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them” (John 20:23). Thus He would wash away the stains of sin, or replace the soiled robe of shame with the regal garment of sanctifying grace. Thus does He heal the wounds of our earthly battle and fit us for our place in the royal household of our heavenly Father.

His Scars

What do the scars of Christ teach us? They teach us that life is a struggle: that our condition of a final resurrection is exactly the same as His; that unless there is a cross in our lives, there will never be an empty tomb; unless there is a Good Friday, there will never be an Easter Sunday; unless there is a crown of thorns, there will never be the halo of light; and unless we suffer with Him, we shall not rise with Him.

The Christ of the Scars gave us no peace which banishes strife, for God hates peace in those that are destined for war against evil.

The scars are not only reminders that life is warfare, but they are also pledges of victory in that war. Our Blessed Lord said, “I have overcome the world.” By this He means that He has overcome evil in principle. The victory is assured, only the good news has not yet leaked out. Evil will never be able to be stronger than it was on that particular day, for the worst thing that evil can do is not to ruin cities and to wage wars and to drop atomic bombs against the good and the living. The worst thing that evil can do is to kill God. Having been defeated in that, in its strongest moment, when evil wore its greatest armor, it can never be victorious again.

Easter Communion

The mystery of mysteries!
Now let the pure in heart draw nigh,
While every pulse is beating high
With love and holy fear;
For Christ hath risen at break of day,
And bids us from the world away
And haste to meet Him here.

The mystery of mysteries!
The Angels and Archangels come
On wings of light from out their home
In ranks of glory wheeling;
Our souls shall mix and blend with theirs,
In loud thanks-offerings and prayers,
Before the Altar kneeling.

The mystery of mysteries!
From east to west the earth shall turn,
And stay its busy feet to learn
The musical vibration;
While Saints and Angels high shall raise
In one vast choir the hymn to praise
The Feast of our Salvation.

Note From Father

Dear Faithful,

Blessed Easter to everyone! The ceremonies for Holy Week are always long and tiring...but always so worth it, as they are truly beautiful! Everything went very smoothly here and I thank all who helped to make them possible.

We have walked with our Lord back into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, followed him to the upper room, the Garden of Gethsemane, and to the prison on Holy Thursday, walked along watching Him climb Calvary and mount the Holy Cross on Good Friday, and now we arrive at the tomb to find the stone rolled back and it empty today. It is time to rejoice! Salvation has arrived! Death and Sin has been conquered! Alleluia!!

May your Eastertide be filled with many blessings and may you find that your Lenten efforts have begun to bring forth many spiritual fruits.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen McKenna
