✦ Announcements ✦

Mark your calendars! We will have our annual Parish Picnic next Sunday, October 6th. We hope that you will be able to join us. There are two sign-up sheets in the vestibule. One is to let us know that your family intends to come to the picnic, so we can ensure there is enough food and the second is for those who would like to volunteer to make/bring something for the picnic.

Today is Angel Sunday. The blessing of children will take place after both masses at the communion rail.

Congratulations to Lawrence and Mary Anne Scheeler on the baptism of their newest baby!

Next Friday and Saturday are the First Friday and Saturday of October.

The blessing of religious articles will take place next Sunday.

📖 Set Your Missal:

Mass: Holy Rosary, 1st Comm. & Prop. Last Gospel Pent. XX, 2nd Comm. St. Bruno, BVM Preface

Collection Totals:

High Mass: 56 souls, $799

Low Mass: 25 souls, $134

🕯 The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week for the following intention: Ben & Angela Friel (Steve & Joanne Heckenkamp)

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Great prince of heaven, St. Michael, I commend my body and soul to thy protection, from this day henceforth I choose thee for my daily protector and intercessor, and I beseech thee graciously to assist me now and at all times, but especially at the end of my life. Keep me from timidity and obtain for me from God the remission of my sins and complete resignation to His divine will, so that my soul, consoled and cheerful, may leave my body; receive her then according to thy office, and lead her through the ranks of thy holy comrades to the face of God, in the enjoyment of whose presence she will be eternally blessed. Amen.

Prayer to St. Therese of the Child Jesus

O marvelous Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, who, in thy brief mortal career, didst become a mirror of angelic purity, of daring love and of whole-hearted surrender to Almighty God, now that thou art enjoying the recompense of thy virtues, turn thine eyes of mercy upon us who trust in thee. Obtain for us the grace to keep our hearts and minds pure and clean like unto thine, and to abhor in all sincerity whatever might tarnish ever so slightly the luster of a virtue so sublime, a virtue that endears us to thy heavenly bridegroom. Ah, dear saint, grant us to feel in every need the power of thy intercession; give us comfort in all the bitterness of this life and especially at its latter end, that we may be worthy to share eternal happiness with thee in paradise.
Amen.

V. Pray for us, O blessed Therese,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

O Lord, who hast said: "Unless you become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven"; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to walk in the footsteps of Thy blessed virgin Therese with a humble and single heart, that we may attain to everlasting rewards: who livest and reignest world without end.

Amen.
(Indulgence 300 days once a day)

St. Francis of Assisi on Mortal Sin

My Brethren, let us above all things avoid mortal sin. Consider how foul and horrible a dead body appears, deprived of the spirit of life; and understand how much more foul and unclean is a soul without God, Who is its life, when it is plunged in mortal sin. If creatures have so much need of each other, how much more has the creature need of his Creator! Grace is further removed from sin than glory is from grace; for the distance is infinite between grace and sin, whereas death alone stands between grace in holy souls and glory. He, therefore, who sins mortally, withdraws from God and draws near to hell, between which and the sinner life only is interposed, and this is often extinguished by an unforeseen and instantaneous death. How many have we not seen retire to bed at night in perfect health, and the next day carried to their grave! Let us humbly beg of God to preserve holily in His grace those who are now refreshed with it, and mercifully to restore it to unhappy sinners. O most strong and loving God, how ready Thou art to pardon the penitent--how powerful and severe in punishing the obstinate!

Guardian Angel Prayer

O pure and happy spirits, whom the Almighty selected to become the angels and guardians of men! I most humbly prostrate before you, to thank you for the charity and zeal with which you execute this commission. Alas! How many pass a long life, without ever thanking that invisible friend to whom they a thousand times owed its preservation!

...O faithful guides! Holy spirits! Ardent adorers of the Divinity! Guardian angels of all creatures! Protect us all; teach us to love, to pray, to combat on earth, and rather obtain for us an instant death, than permit us to commit one mortal sin. Amen.

Angelic Ministry

And is there care in Heaven? And is there love
In heavenly spirits to these creatures base,
That may compassion of their evils move?
There is—else much more wretched were the case
Of men than beasts: but O! the exceeding grace
Of highest God, that loves His creatures so,
That all His works with mercy doth embrace,
That blesséd Angels He sends to and fro,
To serve to wicked man, to serve His wicked foe!

How oft do they their silver bowers leave,
To come to succor us that succor want!
How oft do they with golden pinions cleave
The flitting skies, like flying pursuivant,
Against the foul fiends to aid us militant!
They for us fight, they watch and duly ward,
And their bright squadrons round about us plant;
And all for love and nothing for reward;
O, why should heavenly God to men have such regard?

– Edmund Spenser

Note From Father

Dear Faithful,

We hadn't had much in the way of rain in Cincinnati for over a month. While it is certainly nice having sunny days and not worrying about having to carry an umbrella around with me, the side effect is that everything around was really turning brown. The grass was very browned out and the leaves on the trees were even starting to skip over the stage of changing into beautiful colors and instead just going straight to brown and dead. However, that all changed the last few days, where we finally got some much-needed rain.

However, it seems like nature went from one extreme to another and we were hit with the remnants of Hurricane Helene on Friday. Obviously, it was no longer a hurricane, but it did bring a fair amount of hard rain and also some strong winds. I made it out to Milwaukee just in time, but Bp. McGuire sent me a couple photos...including one where the lattice on our little porch at the rectory had broken from the wind and the charcoal grill had been blown off the deck and onto the ground. The cats and the good Bishop wisely decided to spend as much of their time indoors as possible.

Here in Milwaukee, the sun is shining, however, although we are getting a little bit of the wind from the edge of the storm. Not enough to hurt anything, but the trees around the church are definitely rustling quite well.

The school at St. Gertrude's had its first parent-teacher conference the other night. The kids haven't been back at school for very long, but the main purpose of this first meeting was for the parents to be able to meet the teachers, (especially the new one) working at the school. It is also a good way to establish good lines of communication between the faculty and the parents for the school year and to lay out in greater detail the outline for how the school schedule. Everyone stayed for quite a while, so I presume all went well. Many of the kids spent their time playing out in the parking lot...a sort of "after-hours recess", I suppose. The importance of a good Catholic education cannot be stressed enough. Academics are certainly important for a child's future, but knowing our Faith well and fostering a love of virtue, the liturgy, and the reception of the Sacraments are for the imperative for their eternity.

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna

General Information

Baptism: By appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsors must be practicing Roman Catholics who attend the Traditional Latin Mass exclusively.

Confession: Before Mass on Sundays, and other times as indicated in the weekly bulletin.

Confirmation: Solemnly administered periodically in the year and may be administered privately by request. Catholics who received confirmation in the post Vatican II rite (1971) should arrange to receive confirmation conditionally in the traditional rite.

First Holy Communion: Administered each year on the Sunday after Corpus Christi. Adequate knowledge of the catechism is required.

Matrimony: If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with a priest before you set a date. At least one of the parties must be a practicing traditional Catholic and member of this parish. Weddings are forbidden during Advent and Lent.

Communion for the Sick: Please contact the pastor or coordinator when a church member is hospitalized or too ill to attend Mass.

Extreme Unction: Do not put off making arrangements until the last moment, but contact the pastor or coordinator promptly if a church member is gravely ill or in danger of death.

Decorum in Church: Respect for God in the Blessed Sacrament requires a reverent silence. Please turn off cell phones and keep children well behaved. Both young and old should wear dignified and modest clothes in church, and women should wear a dress or skirt, and a veil or hat. Veils are available in the vestibule. Men should wear shirt and tie as well as a jacket or sweater.

Holy Communion: Only baptized practicing Catholics in the state of grace may receive Holy Communion. You must be fasting:

- Three hours from solid foods and alcoholic beverages.
- One hour from other liquids.
- Water may be taken at any time.

The communicant kneels at the communion rail, and receives the Blessed Sacrament on the tongue. The communicant does not say “Amen” after the priest says “Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam aeternam. Amen.”

Singing: The faithful are invited to join in singing any hymns preceding or following the Mass, but only the choir sings during the course of the Mass.
