On Catholic Education

These answers are valuable in showing the main preventative to the curse of apostasy: Catholic Education. Not only the gathering of our Catholic children in the parochial school, or in boarding schools, but Catholic education for the adults of our parish by simple, plain, regular, interesting and instructive preaching; by personal contact, good example, friendly visits, salutary guidance through the confessional, and the encouragement of good reading. Knowledge of their religion and the faithful and affectionate practice of it must be made the very heart of our people, the atmosphere in which they breathe, and move and live. Superficiality in knowledge leads to laxity in morals from which springs indifference in practice of faith. Catholics need Catholic companionship. Non-Catholic companionship, as a rule, causes a change in the principles that actuate the Catholic and is marked by a gradual lowering in ideals, and a cooling in fervor, so that soon they seem to feel no compunction for disobeying the Church. As soon as a Catholic begins to show disrespect for his Church, or criticizes it, he becomes a prospective member of the class of the fallen-away.

Marquette on the Shores of the Mississippi

On Seeing the Original Manuscript Map of the Mississippi River
by its Discoverer,
Father Marquette

*Here, in the midnight of the solemn wood,
He heard a roar as of a mighty wind,
The onward rush of waters unconfined
Trampling in legions thro' the solitude.*

*Then lo! before him swept the conquering flood,
Free as the freedom of the truth-strong mind
Which hills of Doubt could neither hide nor bind,
Which, all in vain, the valley mounds withstood!*

*With glowing eye he saw the prancing tide
With yellow mane rush onward thro' the night
Into the vastness he had never trod:
Nor dreamt of conquest of that kingdom wide
As down the flood his spirit took its flight
Seeking the long-lost children of his God!
– John Jerome Rooney*

Prayer for a Safe Journey

The following prayer is an adaptation of the itinerarium, the prayer said by clerics to invoke God's protection before beginning a journey. The faithful who are about to travel may use this form to pray for God's blessing on their journeys.

Along the ways of peace and prosperity may the almighty and merciful Lord lead us, and may the Angel Raphael accompany us on the journey. So may we in peace, health, and joy return unto our own.

Let us Pray:

O God, who didst lead the sons of Israel through the sea over a dry path, and didst reveal the way to the three Magi by the guidance of a star; vouchsafe to grant us a happy journey and a peaceful time, that accompanied by Thy angel we may safely reach our present destination, and come finally to the haven of eternal salvation.

O God, who didst lead Thy servant, Abraham, out of Ur of the Chaldeans, safeguarding him on all his wanderings--guide us Thy servants, we implore Thee. Be Thou unto us support in battle, refuge in journeying, shade in the heat, covering in the rain and cold, a carriage in tiredness, protection in adversity, a staff in insecurity, a harbor in shipwreck; so that under Thy leadership we may successfully reach our destination, and finally return safe to our homes.

Give ear, we pray Thee, Lord, to our entreaties! And direct the steps of Thy servants on the paths of righteousness, that in all the vicissitudes of the journey and of life, we may have Thee as our constant protector.

Grant, O almighty God, that Thy children march forth on a successful journey; and heeding the exhortation of Blessed John, the Precursor, let them come safely to Him whom John foretold, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Note From Father

Dear Faithful,

After a few frosty nights and cool days at the beginning of the week, the beautiful fall weather has returned once again. Just in time for our annual Fall Festival on Sunday at St. Gertrude's! This event includes games, craft sales, friends, and fun for all.

Last Sunday, we had Rosary processions in several places in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. At St. Gertrude's the Rosary procession is held in the evening, and in October, this means that the sun is set already and the procession is done with everyone carrying lit candles. The sisters reported that 115 candles had been distributed at the procession and there were more present than that (presumably babies and little tykes, at least, didn't get candles...but they certainly count as attending!). What a beautiful sight all those lights must have been and how much more beautiful must have been the prayers in the eyes of God! So much is made of politics these days, but our hope should not be in men...especially those men. No, our hope is in Our Lord and Our Lady. It wasn't just here at St. Gertrude's that we had Rosary processions that day, either. Happily, Fr. Simpson, as you know, led a Rosary procession between the two Masses here at St. Hugh's in Milwaukee, I led one down at our mission in Dallas, and Fr. Brueggemann even led a little procession at the Holy Face mission in Effingham, IL!

Rosary Processions throughout the missions is the perfect precursor to today being Mission Sunday. Our apostolate is centered here at St. Gertrude's, but as you know, we serve missions far and wide. Just to put it in perspective for you what is regularly going on from our clergy, here is what just the mission travel from this past week, (last weekend through this weekend), looks like for the five of us here. Last weekend, I traveled Saturday to Dallas and returned Sunday night, Fr. Brueggemann said Mass here at St. Gertrude's and then offered an evening Mass in Effingham, IL, and Fr. Simpson traveled here to Milwaukee, where he offered two Sunday morning Masses and then drove to Park Falls, WI to offer a Sunday evening Mass...from there he has continued on through Grand Forks, ND, Minot, ND, and back this weekend to Milwaukee. I, again, return this weekend to say Mass in Dallas and Bp. McGuire has flown to New England to offer Mass and Confirmations in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Thankfully, we are very fortunate to be able to cover so much distance with modern travel. We are not out long hours in the rain and snow, riding on a donkey, and getting bit by all sorts of various bugs, like the missionaries of old. However, the efforts are for the same good of souls and the labor to do so is still grand. As such, it is easy to see how your prayers are not only appreciated, but essential for success. So please keep all priests in your prayers and also pray for more priests to come...we rely on your prayers more than you can know in this life, and they do more good than you can imagine. Prayer is how each and every one of us can be a missionary!

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna

General Information

Baptism: By appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsors must be practicing Roman Catholics who attend the Traditional Latin Mass exclusively.

Confession: Before Mass on Sundays, and other times as indicated in the weekly bulletin.

Confirmation: Solemnly administered periodically in the year and may be administered privately by request. Catholics who received confirmation in the post Vatican II rite (1971) should arrange to receive confirmation conditionally in the traditional rite.

First Holy Communion: Administered each year on the Sunday after Corpus Christi. Adequate knowledge of the catechism is required.

Matrimony: If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with a priest before you set a date. At least one of the parties must be a practicing traditional Catholic and member of this parish. Weddings are forbidden during Advent and Lent.

Communion for the Sick: Please contact the pastor or coordinator when a church member is hospitalized or too ill to attend Mass.

Extreme Unction: Do not put off making arrangements until the last moment, but contact the pastor or coordinator promptly if a church member is gravely ill or in danger of death.

Decorum in Church: Respect for God in the Blessed Sacrament requires a reverent silence. Please turn off cell phones and keep children well behaved. Both young and old should wear dignified and modest clothes in church, and women should wear a dress or skirt, and a veil or hat. Veils are available in the vestibule. Men should wear shirt and tie as well as a jacket or sweater.

Holy Communion: Only baptized practicing Catholics in the state of grace may receive Holy Communion. You must be fasting:

- Three hours from solid foods and alcoholic beverages.
- One hour from other liquids.
- Water may be taken at any time.

The communicant kneels at the communion rail, and receives the Blessed Sacrament on the tongue. The communicant does not say “Amen” after the priest says “Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam aeternam. Amen.”

Singing: The faithful are invited to join in singing any hymns preceding or following the Mass, but only the choir sings during the course of the Mass.
