Special Offering for the Souls in Purgatory

O God of love, Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, on this altar behold the unbloody Sacrifice of the Body and Blood of Thy Son, representing that of His most holy death and grievous Passion, which He, the great High-Priest, offered Thee on Calvary. In consideration of this holocaust of sweet odor, have mercy on the souls in purgatory; open to them the gates of heaven that they may love and praise Thee, and enjoy Thee eternally in the abode of the saints. Together with the sufferings of Thy divine Son, I likewise offer Thee the sorrows of His Blessed Mother, whose soul was crucified at the foot of her Son's cross; for the lance which pierced the side and Heart of Jesus, Thine adorable Son, also transfixed the soul and Heart of Mary, according to Simeon's prophecy, and made her the Queen of Martyrs. Behold then, O heavenly Father! the disfigured countenance of Thy Son on the cross and the sorrowful Heart of His Mother at the foot of the cross; and by the merits of all the sufferings of Thy Son and of His Blessed Mother, grant eternal repose to the souls in purgatory.

— St. Alphonsus Liguori

How Jesus Christ must Reign Over the Household

...It is not enough that married people should take Jesus Christ as their King at the beginning of their wedded life. This loving Sovereign also wishes to continue reigning over them through a mutual and sincere charity founded on His holy love. For He is the King of charity and Prince of peace, and therefore He flees from those households where strife, evil speech and bad behavior are the rule, where the husband ill-treats the wife and the wife does not respect the husband; where children influenced by the bad example of their parents go so far as to insult them.

...Now, then, if married people wish Jesus to reign over their households, it is necessary that they should have a right and Christian idea of the holiness of marriage and that their hearts should be made one by the presence of divine charity. This godly virtue will level, so to speak, those differences of character and opinion which might otherwise become sources of perpetual bitterness.

You! A Saint

All Saints' Day reminds us that you also can be a saint. It isn't difficult, in fact it is quite simple. Love God and serve Him. Surely it isn't hard to love and serve God, the God Who has done so much for you; loved you from all eternity, gave you being, cares for you every moment of the day. The God Who created you for happiness, an eternity of happiness.

Yes, we can all be saints. God wants us to be saints. He wants us to be His friends in this world and in Heaven. The Blessed Virgin, the Apostles, St. John the Baptist, St. Francis Cabrini, who lived right here in America, St. Agnes, St. Martin of Tours, St. Elizabeth, St. Maria Goretti, and many, many more once were boys and girls. They had mothers and fathers just as we have. They lived in this world. They played, laughed and cried just as we do.

The Saints are our brothers and sisters, for the Communion of Saints makes of us all one family. The Saints are God's friends and ours. They will help us on our way to sanctity. We should read stories of their lives, for their holiness will inspire us to avoid sin and to imitate them in holiness.

We, like the Saints, when assisting at Holy Mass, will be grateful for the opportunity of offering with the priest the sacrifice of Calvary again renewed on our altars. We will long for Holy Communion and will receive often, knowing that Jesus wants our souls to be well fed and cared for. We will become more holy, more loving, more kind, and in this way we can become saints.

Prayer for Apostles

Give us courage and enthusiasm, give us charity and unity, give us a spirit of initiative and originality of thought. Give us a pure intention in everything and a deep love for the cross; give us a thirst for souls. Deliver us from selfishness and jealousy, deliver us from cowardice and the fear of making sacrifices; deliver us from blindness toward the need of our neighbors; deliver us from deafness toward the inspirations of the Holy Ghost.

Prayer in Honor of Christ Our King

May Christ our King, in the sweet yoke and light burden of His royal rule, bless and fructify ever more abundantly our devotion in honor of His Divine Majesty!

I desire to adore Thee in Thine infinite Majesty, to make some amends at least for the sins by which I caused Thee to be mocked as a King; to thank Thee for Thy supreme dominion over me, and to plead before Thy Throne, O Divine King, for the conversion of souls and of nations to Thy glorious service, and for every other intention for which Thou didst pray; shed Thy Precious Blood; endure Thy Agony, and accept Thy bitter Passion and Death.

Blessed Queen of Heaven, help me that I may console the wounded Heart of Christ our King, and promote His interests throughout the world.

My Jesus Mercy! Thy Kingdom Come!

Note From Father

Dear Faithful,

The fall foliage in Milwaukee has really become quite vibrant and beautiful. It is pretty nice in Cincinnati too. When you combine this with the wonderful sunny days we've been having, it really makes for some idyllic scenery while driving around. Bp. McGuire had a really nice trip to New England last weekend, where he did confirmations in Fr. Rodriguez's Our Lady of the Rosary Chapel in Monroe, CT and Sacred Heart Church in Lawrence, MA where Fr. Richards is the pastor. He said he confirmed about fifteen people in total and had a wonderful visit with both of the priests, as well as Brs. Gerard and Jerome in Massachusetts. He was even treated to a delicious cannoli in the Italian section of Boston, known as the North End...he didn't however, bring any home for us. I joked with him about this, but in actuality, he would have but had no room in his luggage. To adapt the famous movie line...Next time, Your Excellency, "Leave the luggage, take the cannoli!" I guess I will just have to look for an excuse to travel back to Boston myself to get one, haha!

At St. Gertrude's, we are celebrating our annual Forty Hours Devotion, this weekend, where the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration from Friday into Sunday and there is an opening and closing Eucharistic procession. Because the priests are needed to conduct Solemn Masses for this, I am the only one of us five on the road this weekend, having traveled to St. Hugh's. However, while I don't get to be at the St. Gertrude's Forty Hours, I only have to wait a couple of weeks until I celebrate Forty Hours here in Milwaukee.

In Dallas, Fr. Carlos Ercoli very kindly assists us by traveling from Seattle to cover the Masses there this weekend. Fr. Ercoli takes care of two parishes in the Seattle area while also running our seminary out there. A man of many talents! Hopefully, his trip to Dallas is a welcomed little change of pace from his normal duties. Please keep Father as well as our seminarians, both present and future in your prayers. There is a great need for well trained and holy priests in the world.

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna

General Information

Baptism: By appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsors must be practicing Roman Catholics who attend the Traditional Latin Mass exclusively.

Confession: Before Mass on Sundays, and other times as indicated in the weekly bulletin.

Confirmation: Solemnly administered periodically in the year and may be administered privately by request. Catholics who received confirmation in the post Vatican II rite (1971) should arrange to receive confirmation conditionally in the traditional rite.

First Holy Communion: Administered each year on the Sunday after Corpus Christi. Adequate knowledge of the catechism is required.

Matrimony: If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with a priest before you set a date. At least one of the parties must be a practicing traditional Catholic and member of this parish. Weddings are forbidden during Advent and Lent.

Communion for the Sick: Please contact the pastor or coordinator when a church member is hospitalized or too ill to attend Mass.

Extreme Unction: Do not put off making arrangements until the last moment, but contact the pastor or coordinator promptly if a church member is gravely ill or in danger of death.

Decorum in Church: Respect for God in the Blessed Sacrament requires a reverent silence. Please turn off cell phones and keep children well behaved. Both young and old should wear dignified and modest clothes in church, and women should wear a dress or skirt, and a veil or hat. Veils are available in the vestibule. Men should wear shirt and tie as well as a jacket or sweater.

Holy Communion: Only baptized practicing Catholics in the state of grace may receive Holy Communion. You must be fasting:

- Three hours from solid foods and alcoholic beverages.
- One hour from other liquids.
- Water may be taken at any time.

The communicant kneels at the communion rail, and receives the Blessed Sacrament on the tongue. The communicant does not say “Amen” after the priest says “Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam aeternam. Amen.”

Singing: The faithful are invited to join in singing any hymns preceding or following the Mass, but only the choir sings during the course of the Mass.
