Purgatory and the Blessed Sacrament

November brings two pathetic remembrances-the pitiable state of the holy souls in purgatory and the abandoned state of Our Divine Lord on the altars; and these two are most closely intertwined. It is at His sacrifice we assist for them; it is He Whom we receive when we want to be heard for the sake of those who groan amidst expiatory flames of that sacred prison, and who await in bondage there the hour of their deliverance. It is this adorable Lord that takes to the suffering souls our prayers, good works, and indulgences; it is this sacramental mediator who receives our aspirations and makes them fruitful for the poor captives. Let us, then, when we look to purgatory, view it through the medium of the Blessed Sacrament; that we may thereby obtain a fuller abundance of light, consolation, and graces for these holy souls. Oh, it can do a great deal-a visit well made, a Mass well heard, or a Holy Communion devoutly received. We may imagine them from the gloom of their prison crying to us:

“Oh friends, how we are tormented in this place of detention, yearning and sighing for union with Jesus in Heaven. Oh, do think of us!-pay a visit for us; assist at Holy Mass; offer your Communion for us – and Heaven will bless you abundantly.”

Let us listen to their plaintive language, and let us multiply our visits, our Masses, and our Holy Communions. The recording angel will take account of it all; and in the measure we give, in the same will it be meted out to us.

St. Charles Borromeo to One's Guardian Angel

My good Guardian Angel, I do not know when and in what manner I will die. It is possible that I will be taken suddenly, or that before my last breath I will find myself deprived of my mental capacities. And there are so many things that I would want to say to God, on the threshold of Eternity... So today, with the full freedom of my will, I come to ask, my Guardian Angel that you speak for me in this dreadful moment. You will say, then, to the Lord: That I want to die in the Holy Roman Catholic Church, in the bosom of which all the saints died after Jesus Christ, and outside of which there is no salvation;

That I ask for the grace to participate in the infinite merits of my Redeemer, and that I wish to die resting my lips on the Cross that was washed with His Blood;

That I hate and detest my sins that have offended Jesus, and that out of love for Him, I forgive my enemies, as I myself wish to be forgiven;

That I accept my death as God's will, and that, with all confidence, I surrender myself to His loving and most Sacred Heart, hoping in all His mercy;

That in my inexpressible desire to go to Heaven, I am ready to suffer whatever His sovereign Justice may please to inflict upon me.

That I love Him before all things, above all things and for His own sake; that I wish and hope to love Him with the Elect, His Angels and the Blessed Mother during all eternity.

Do not refuse, oh my Holy Guardian Angel, to be my interpreter with God and to expose before Him that these are my sentiments and my will. Amen.

St. Philip Neri and the Poor Souls

St. Philip Neri had a very tender devotion for the souls in purgatory. His great attraction was to pray for those whose consciences he had directed during life. In his opinion, a father's charity ought to follow them to eternity, because real charity, says St. Paul, never falleth away. He avowed that many of his spiritual children appeared to him after their death, to request his prayers or to thank him for those he had said in their favor. We are also assured by him that he obtained by the aid of these poor souls very many graces. He himself appeared to a holy Religious, crowned with a glory in the midst of a beautiful procession. The Religious, encouraged by the friendly and meek air with which the saint regarded him, asked who were the happy beings that surrounded him. St. Philip answered they were the souls whom he had helped during his life in this world, and who had been delivered from purgatory by his prayers. He added that they had met him at his death and introduced him into the kingdom of the blessed

Prayer to your Patron Saint

Son of Adam, son of my nature, the same by nature, differing only in grace, man, like myself, exposed to temptation, to the same warfare within, and without; with the same three; deadly enemies—the world, the flesh, and the devil; with the same human, the same wayward heart: differing only as the power of God had changed and ruled it. You were not an angel Heaven but a man, whom grace, and grace alone, had made to differ from me. You preached not yourself, but Jesus Christ our Lord. My patron, Saint N..., pray for me.

- Cardinal Newman

Prayer for Priests

O holy Mother of God, pray for the priests thy Son has chosen to serve the Church. Help them, by thine intercession, to be holy, zealous, and chaste. Make them models of virtue in the service of God's people. Help them to be pious in meditation, efficacious in preaching, and zealous in the daily offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Help them to administer the Sacraments with love and joy. Amen.

-St. Charles Borromeo

Note From Father

Dear Faithful,

We had beautiful Masses for All Saints Day and All Souls Day here at St. Hugh of Lincoln in Milwaukee. The choir sang beautifully, the servers did a very good job and the Masses were well attended. Additionally, it was so edifying to see so many people come and go to make the Toties Quoties. How I wish this special privilege of gaining multiple plenary indulgences for the Holy Souls in Purgatory could be on offer to all our missions. Alas, it is only possible at churches which have been properly dedicated and also reserve the Blessed Sacrament. But here at St. Hugh, we are blessed to be one of those dedicated chapels and I could see that many souls were aided by you all!

Don't forget, it is not the only chance for plenary indulgences for the Poor Souls. A plenary indulgence may be gained for them every day of the octave of All Souls by simply visiting a cemetery and praying for the souls in purgatory. What a great opportunity to aid those souls who are forgotten and have nobody to pray for them. It is true charity for us, the Church Militant, to assist the Church Suffering, so that they may join the ranks of the Church Triumphant!

On Friday night, after the All Saints High Mass, we had our annual All Saints party downstairs. There were some excellent costumes and great choices of Saints to present themselves to me. Last year I was able to successfully guess all of our little saints. This year, however, the level of difficulty was increased, as were the number of saints in attendance, and I was stumped twice! I still got somewhere around 85% correct, but I still feel I am going to need to bump up my hagiography skills. Hopefully Bp. McGuire has a better success rate than me on Sunday at St. Gertrude's All Saints party!

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna
