Litany of St. Mary Magdalen

Lord, have mercy on us

Christ, have mercy on us

Lord, have mercy on us,

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

God, the Father of heaven,

have mercy on us.

God, the Son, Redeemer of the world,

have mercy on us.

God, the Holy Ghost,

have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, one God,

have mercy on us.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,

Pray for us. *

Refuge of sinners, *

Queen conceived without sin, *

St. Mary Magdalen, *

St. Mary Magdalen, model of all true penitents, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who made no delay in returning to God, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who being once converted, despised all earthly pleasures, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who had no other grief but that of having offended infinite goodness, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who turned all that had served to sin into periods of love and sorrow, *

St. Mary Magdalen, whose eyes, once instruments of sin, are now bathed in tears, *

St. Mary Magdalen, whose lips, once defiled, are now made pure by the hallowed kiss of Jesus' feet, *

St. Mary Magdalen, whose hands, once sinful, are now holy by the sacred touch of Jesus' feet, *

St. Mary Magdalen, whose hair, once adorned to please creatures, is now used to wipe Jesus' feet, *

St. Mary Magdalen, whose penance was a true holocaust to divine love, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who heard the blessed words, "Thy sins are forgiven, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who left Jesus' feet with the consoling words--
"Go in peace", *

St. Mary Magdalen, who followed Jesus even to Calvary, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who assisted at the agony of Jesus, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who received drops of blood falling from the cross, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who heard the loud cry, "All is consummated!", *

St. Mary Magdalen, who saw Jesus expiring, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who mingled thy tears with those of the sorrowful Mother, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who went early to the sepulcher, to embalm the body of Jesus, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who, in thy grief, noticed not the bright host of heaven, *

St. Mary Magdalen, who would not be comforted until the life-giving voice had said: "Mary!" *

St. Mary Magdalen, who wast the first apostle of the Resurrection, *

Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
Spare us, O Lord

Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
Graciously hear us, O Lord

Lamb of God, Who takes away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us

Let Us Pray:

O my God! may thy love be the sole principle of my penance. Let my sorrow be to have offended Thee, my supreme good, my first beginning and last end. May my tears flow from a heart wounded with love. I grieve for the past, and firmly resolve never more to offend Thee.

Prayer to the Precious Blood

O precious Blood of Jesus, infinite price of sinful man's redemption, both drink and laver of our souls, Thou who dost plead continually the cause of man before the throne of infinite mercy; from the depths of my heart, I adore Thee, and so far as I am able, I would requite Thee for insults and outrages which Thou dost continually receive from human beings, and especially from those who rashly dare to blaspheme Thee. Who would not bless this Blood of infinite value? Who doth not feel within himself the fire of the love of Jesus who shed it all for us? What would be my fate, had I not been redeemed by this divine Blood? Who hath drawn it from the veins of my Saviour, even to the last drop? Ah, this surely was the work of love. O infinite love, which has given us this saving balm! O balm beyond all price, welling up from the fountain of infinite love, grant that every heart and every tongue may be enabled to praise Thee, magnify Thee and give Thee thanks both now and for evermore. Amen.

Note from Father

Dear Faithful,

It seems like just about every day I watch as another priest here leaves for a trip...until I look around and find I am the only one left at St. Gertrude's for the Sunday! Bp. McGuire left for Mexico on Tuesday and arrived eventually. He laid over in Atlanta and boarded his flight to Mexico, only to have to later deplane because the brakes were not working. I suppose it's probably better to learn that there is something wrong with the breaks when sitting at the gate rather than when you are touching down at landing!! They found him a new plane, and he traveled on to Mexico City a couple of hours late. While he is there, he is doing Confirmations for the chapels of Frs. Martin Gomez, Jamie Siordia, and Roberto Mardones. Fr. Arnoldo Villegas is also coming out from Tijuana to lend a helping hand. Quite the busy trip!

Meanwhile, back here, Fr. Lehtoranta left Thursday for a well-deserved vacation, Fr. Brueggemann left Friday, with a couple of seminarians in tow for Milwaukee, and Fr. Simpson departed Saturday for Dallas. So, it's just me and the cats here with you all this weekend! Unfortunately, they aren't particularly helpful for things like Masses and Confessions...or really anything in life. It's pretty much all take and no give with those little guys.

We will quickly shift from me being alone to having a plethora of people with collars at St. Gertrude's. Frs. Simpson and Brueggemann return Sunday night. They will be joined by the three seminarians, who will stay with us for a couple weeks in order to their summer apostolic work and also help with the boys' camp. Bp. McGuire arrives back Monday night and Fr. Julian Larabee comes in the same day for a few days of vacation. On Thursday we will even add Fr. Daniel Ahern for a night...There will be no vacancy in the inn.

Last weekend's Young Adult Get-Together was a great success. It seemed to all go very smoothly, we had a decent crowd, and everyone seemed to have a good time. In addition to sermons and talks, I joined the kids for trivia. I joked with the people on my team that we should win, because a lot of what they will look at as history questions was at one point just "the news" for me, haha!

The YAG followed into Monday's Fatima Rosary Procession, which was well attended with 118 people. In the July apparition, Our Lady stressed to the children the importance of praying the Rosary for the end of the war going on, which was World War One. She told them that only Our Lady could obtain the sufficient graces necessary to end the war, which was more terrible than any war the world had ever seen to that point. It is a great reminder for us to pray with confidence at the various problems which plague society around us to which we often are tempted to feel helpless to be able to effect...the waging of new wars, the corruption of society, the crisis in the Church.

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna

General Information

Baptism: By appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsors must be practicing Roman Catholics who attend the Traditional Latin Mass exclusively.

Confession: Before Mass on Sundays, and other times as indicated in the weekly bulletin.

Confirmation: Solemnly administered periodically in the year and may be administered privately by request. Catholics who received confirmation in the post Vatican II rite (1971) should arrange to receive confirmation conditionally in the traditional rite.

First Holy Communion: Administered each year on the Sunday after Corpus Christi. Adequate knowledge of the catechism is required.

Matrimony: If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with a priest before you set a date. At least one of the parties must be a practicing traditional Catholic and member of this parish. Weddings are forbidden during Advent and Lent.

Communion for the Sick: Please contact the pastor or coordinator when a church member is hospitalized or too ill to attend Mass.

Extreme Unction: Do not put off making arrangements until the last moment, but contact the pastor or coordinator promptly if a church member is gravely ill or in danger of death.

Decorum in Church: Respect for God in the Blessed Sacrament requires a reverent silence. Please turn off cell phones and keep children well behaved. Both young and old should wear dignified and modest clothes in church, and women should wear a dress or skirt, and a veil or hat. Veils are available in the vestibule. Men should wear shirt and tie as well as a jacket or sweater.

Holy Communion: Only baptized practicing Catholics in the state of grace may receive Holy Communion. You must be fasting:

- Three hours from solid foods and alcoholic beverages.
- One hour from other liquids.
- Water may be taken at any time.

The communicant kneels at the communion rail, and receives the Blessed Sacrament on the tongue. The communicant does not say “Amen” after the priest says “Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam aeternam. Amen.”

Singing: The faithful are invited to join in singing any hymns preceding or following the Mass, but only the choir sings during the course of the Mass.

Donations: You may donate through Venmo to @StHughofLincoln-Church or scan the QR code.
