Prayer before the Pietà

Weeping Mother! all thy anguish
Deeper than the deepest sea,
All thy tears and soulful languish
Crushed thy heart because of me!

I with sin untold have driven
This cruel sword into thy heart,
But though time on time forgiven
I neglected Magdalen's part.

Now repentant, list my pleading—
I who drove that sharp sword there,
I who caused thy grief exceeding—
Mother! hearken to my prayer:

When the sword of sorrow spends me
(And life's bitterness I feel)
Help me clasp it though it rends me
To my heart with bands of steel.

Mother! though my heart be riven,
Help me suffer silently.
Tears alone will open Heaven
For a sinner such as me!

Credo, Salve Regina (Hail Holy Queen), Three Ave Marias, in honor of the most holy heart of Mary.

Prayer to the Queen of Martyrs

Mary, most holy Virgin and Queen of Martyrs, accept the sincere homage of my filial affection. Into thy heart, pierced by so many swords, do thou welcome my poor soul. Receive it as the companion of thy sorrows at the foot of the Cross, on which Jesus died for the redemption of the world. With thee, O sorrowful Virgin, I will gladly suffer all the trials, contradictions, and infirmities which it shall please our Lord to send me. I offer them all to thee in memory of thy sorrows, so that every thought of my mind, and every beat of my heart may be an act of compassion and of love for thee. And do thou, sweet Mother, have pity on me, reconcile me to thy divine Son Jesus, keep me in His grace, and assist me in my last agony, so that I may be able to meet thee in heaven and sing thy glories. Amen.

Indulgence of 500 days. (384)

Note from Father

Dear Faithful,

Bp. Sanborn is visiting this weekend here at St. Gertrude the Great. His Excellency not only agreed to preach and offer the High Mass on Sunday, but also will join us for the Parish Picnic today. It is amazing to see how energetic he still is. He drove all the way out from Pennsylvania, visited with people who happened to be in the area from his London mission, came up to spend some time with us, and did not hesitate to be put to work! It's remarkable to hear just how many people just at our own parishes and missions have Bp. Sanborn as an integral part of their conversions from the Novus Ordo, thanks to his many writings, podcasts, and sermons. It is truly a global reach which has crossed multiple generations and a legacy which he doesn't rest upon but continues to build.

This Wednesday, Bp. McGuire will set out on his long journey to the Philippines, where he will do confirmations at two locations for Fr. Soleman. Just getting to the Philippines will take more than an entire day of traveling. Because of the time zone change and crossing the International Date Line, Bp. McGuire leaves on Wednesday but arrives on what will be Friday in the Philippines. However, coming back, he will arrive on the same day as he departs...that day will just be 37 hours in length!! Please keep him in your prayers for this long journey, that it may be a very fruitful visit.

I have started my preparations for moving to Seattle in October. It is quite a daunting task to organize the various aspects of life. I am making lists, so I can check things off, but it seems like the lists just keep growing. There are a lot of odds and ends which I must account for. I am sure I will get myself ready to go by the time my departure date arrives...but right now, the mountain seems to just grow taller out of the ground.

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen McKenna
