   Our Father, Hail Mary

   Our Father, Hail Mary

O Lord Jesus, by the Precious Blood which Thou didst shed in Thy crowning with thorns, deign to aid and release the souls in purgatory, particularly the soul that was most devoted to the Blessed Virgin.    Our Father, Hail Mary

   Our Father, Hail Mary

   Our Father, Hail Mary

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Mass for the Dead

Oh! Write not on the tombstones both of Sinner and of saint,

That all alike have gone to God without an Earthly taint;
'Tis a lie you tell the living, 'tis a mockery of
The dead,
'Tis an outrage to the holy God, most holy and
Most dread;
'Tis dishonour to the blessèd lips of Him from Whom we heard
That we shall give account to God of every idle
Word.
Yet hope we for our brother, though his life
Was foul to see,
And fear we for our brother, though a saint he Seemed to be;
The sinner may have wept for sin, though we Know not when or how,
And the saint must be unblemished ere he lift
His crownèd brow
Let us pray, and let us offer the all prevailing
Mass,
While through the cleansing flames to God the Ransomed spirits pass.
O Priest, thy brother's helper, remember thou
Art clay,
Pray for the soul departed, and for thy own
Soul pray.

Prayer to All the Saints

All ye saints of God, vouchsafe to make intercession for the salvation of us, and of us all.

V. Ye just, rejoice in our Lord, and be exceeding glad.
R. And glory, all ye right in heart.

Let us pray:

Protect, O Lord, Thy people, and let the confidence we have in the intercession of Thy blessed apostles Peter and Paul, and of Thy other apostles, prevail with thee, to preserve and defend us forever.

May all Thy saints, O Lord, we beseech thee, everywhere assist us, that whilst we celebrate their merits, we may be sensible of their protection; grant us Thy peace in our times, and repel all wickedness from Thy Church: prosperously guide the steps, actions, and desires of us, and of all Thy servants, in the way of salvation: give eternal blessings to those who have done good to us, and everlasting rest to the faithful departed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son

Note from Father

Dear Faithful,

This weekend is my first weekend spent here in Seattle. I have met a few of the parishioners this week and they have been very warm and welcoming, as well as quite edifyingly devout. I look forward to getting to speak with more today, especially at the All Saints Party Fr. Ercoli is having after the High Mass. In the afternoon, we head off to the other chapel, St. Joseph's, in Mt. Vernon, WA. This is a beautiful church about an hour and a half north of Holy Redeemer chapel, where we live and where the seminary is. I will stay the night there and then offer the All Souls Masses on Monday, before heading back.

This past week was also the first week I taught classes at the seminary. It has all seemed to have gone well so far. What is most interesting is that teaching also gives me cause to study the material again too, which I quite enjoy.

After this upcoming week, I return to more familiar roots, as I head out Friday to Milwaukee and the missions once again. November is quite the busy month, so it was actually a bit tricky to make all the pieces fit on the schedule. But there is always a way to do so, if one can manage to be a little bit creative.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen McKenna
